

Max Honors Experience – Completed and Ongoing tasks

Assignment	Category		Description
March & April 2023 - DSW Kenya: The Holistic Action Project (HAPA Project) – Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights	Endline Evaluation		Mixed methods (qualitative and quantitative) evaluation conducted in Kilifi and West Pokot Counties. Max Honors evaluated multifaceted Sexual Reproductive Health and Rights intervention that enhanced access to SRHR information to young adolescents aged 10 – 14 years, community actions to address barriers and economic livelihoods strengthening to parents of the young adolescents.
March 2022 and Ongoing GBV/SEA/SH Mainstreaming among Ministry of Water and Irrigation Agencies	Ongoing Monitoring and Evaluation		Implementing Organization – Francis Allen Consulting Limited Provided technical support in development of risk assessment tools and conducting assessment. Also developed materials and trained Ministry of Water Agency Staff in Mombasa, Kilifi, Kwale, Taita Taveta, Wajir and Garisa Counties on documenting and monitoring SEA/SH. Guidelines for SEA/SH data management and data protocol were disseminated. Max Honors provided ongoing monitoring of project progress
July & August 2022 - DSW Kenya and Sauti Ya Wanawake: Gender based violence/Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (GBV/SEA) among adolescent girls	Baseline Assessment		Max Honors in collaboration with MASDEV consulting conducted and mixed methods baseline assessment targeting adolescent girls in Kwale County. The evaluation explored vulnerability factors, barriers to accessing care and made solid recommendations for effective implementation of GBV/SEA intervention targeting adolescent girls and young women in the county.

March 2022 - Francis Allen Consulting Limited: HIV/AIDS, Gender and GBV, Alcohols and drug Abuse and COVID-19 among Kenol - Sagana - Marua road construction affected communities	Baseline Assessment		The baseline evaluation explored the status of key indicators on; HIV, Gender and GBV, Alcohol and Drug abuse and Road Safety intervention themes among the Kenol-Marua Road Construction Affected Communities spanning Muranga, Machakos, Kirinyaga, Embu and Nyeri Counties. The study explored; Knowledge Attitude and Practices of affected communities, existing community interventions, and trends in service uptake and made solid recommendations for addressing effects arising from road constructions to the targeted communities.
July 2021 - African Centre for Women Information Communication and Technology (ACWICT): Digitalisation of Health Services Landscape in Laikipia County of Kenya	Baseline assessment		The assessed Laikipia County status along the World Health Organization (WHO) Global Health Index focus areas; leadership and Governance in prioritizing digital health, strategy and Investment on Digital health, Legislation, policy and compliance to promote digital health, workforce capacity on digital health service provision, digital infrastructure, digital health standards and interoperability, Services and application as well as data use for decision making. The assessment made solid recommendation for enhancing Digital Health Ecosystem for Laikipia County for Effective Health Care Services delivery.

May 2020 - African Centre for Women Information Communication and Technology (ACWICT): “Maudhui Digi” Digital Content use among Farmer Community in Laikipia County of Kenya	Formative Evaluation		The baseline evaluation explored the Perspectives on Locally Relevant Digital Content for Underserved Farmer Community in Laikipia County of Kenya. Assessment focused on awareness of farmer community, especially women farmers on source of agricultural information, existing platforms for accessing agricultural information, knowledge and perceptions on and barriers for use of digital agricultural information/platforms, available digital content, stakeholder support towards access to digital content among limited resource farmer community. The study made critical recommendations for expanding access and use of agriculturally relevant digital information for farmers.
February 2020 - African Centre for Women Information Communication and Technology (ACWICT): Expanding Women and Youth ICT innovation opportunities for economic integration within the EAC member states, IIDEA Project	Baseline Assessment		The mixed methods formative assessment assessed the status of EAC integration in view of addressing trade barriers for women and youth involved in cross-border trading. It assessed trader's knowledge, experiences and challenges in the use of ICT for cross-border trading and digital oriented opportunities cross-border trading agencies available for traders and barriers to its use. The assessment was done in Namanga and Busia Cross-border points and targeted women and youth cross-border traders and cross-border trading agencies in Kajiado County (Kenya) and Longido District (Tanzania), and Busia County (Kenya) and Busia District (Uganda).
January 2019 - Tackle Africa: Outcome Evaluation for the DREAMS Innovation Challenge Project	Outcome Evaluation		The evaluation outcomes from the DREAMS Innovation Challenge project of promoting uptake of VMMC and HIV services among adolescent boys and young men in limiting resource settings of Nairobi through football. It entailed primary data collection methods and use of project routine data and data uploaded in the National DHIS II to demonstrate the effect of the intervention in the targeted community.